I/Openers™ Presents
PC·son's Greetings For Every User On Your List!

T was the night before Christmas
Each computer in the land,
Was on-line for the arrival
Of two elves with vast command.

From Santa's sack they spritely popped
With a wave and then a whisk,
The most enchanting tidings from
Their e-lectronic disk.

The screens began to ring with CHEER!
A night of Yule festivity,
As one by one the gifts were played
Oh Joyous Compatibility!

Aim high inside a stocking hung
For Yuletide basketball,
A game for those who're long on luck
And not particularly tall.

A wish, a hope, these tidings sent
On your computer cards,
Make one on disk or print one out
To express your fond regards.

Was on-line for the arrival
Of two elves with vast command.

From Santa's sack they spritely popped
With a wave and then a whisk,
The most enchanting tidings from
Their e-lectronic disk.

The screens began to ring with CHEER!
A night of Yule festivity,
As one by one the gifts were played
Oh Joyous Compatibility!

From toy parade to dancing elves
These fun games number seven,
Your favorite carols play for you
It's interactive heaven.

Aim high inside a stocking hung
For Yuletide basketball,
A game for those who're long on luck
And not particularly tall.

She leaps, she spins, she pirouettes
A bear in North Pole frill,
Input your special messages
She'll show her footloose skill.

A wish, a hope, these tidings sent
On your computer cards,
Make one on disk or print one out
To express your fond regards.
