

HUNGRY BOY

Instructions

Boot the diskette on an APPLE-II PLUS computer with 48K memory using either 13 or 16 Sector Controller. After loading the program APPLE will ask you whether you want to use the Joystick or the Keyboard. Press 'J' for the Joystick or 'K' for the Keyboard. You may have to press twice to get the demonstration screen. To stop the demonstration and start the game, press any key.

Try to eat as many dots in the maze as possible. For each dot you eat, you get 10 points, and if you eat FRUIT you will get extra points. Of course you want to avoid being eaten by the four mumbling ghosts in the maze. These four ghosts have their own characters, based on their color:

Red — Ghost tries to trace you.

Green — Ghost is crafty and tries to deceive you.

White — Ghost strolls around.

Purple — Ghost is good at ambushing.

If you are tired of being chased around, you can always eat one of the four blinking dots and become the HUNGRY BOY that eats ghosts. (At the same time all four ghosts will turn blue.) You will get:

1st Ghost: 200 points

2nd Ghost: 400 points

3rd Ghost: 800 points

4th Ghost: 1600 points

But time is limited; very soon the ghosts will be blinking to indicate they want to eat you again.

You will get another screen after you eat all the dots on the first screen, but be prepared for higher speed action for the next screen. You will have a short "coffee break" after you finish every two screen. We have prepared a small show for this break and hope you will like it.
